Please include an essay explaining why you would like to represent the Eastern Colorado Roundup through the royalty program.

Required attire for the week of fair: Blue jeans, white long sleeve button up shirt, cowboy boots, and a black hat.

Thursday August 1 contestants will be giving a two minute speech, personal interview, as well as a riding pattern and fast lap. Friday August 2 contestants will also be required to ride in the parade as well as the grand entry prior to the rodeo. All contestants will be required to be at the fair all week long and participate during all events as predetermined by the Coordinator.

I have read and understand the contestant requirements and if selected for participation in the Royalty program I understand that I will be held to high standards of conduct in representing Washington County and if those standards are not adhered to either by inappropriate actions or conduct on my part, I may be dismissed from the program by the Board of County Commissioners.
