Special Rules:

- 1 If a youth only has the one market catch-it pig, it may sell at the Junior Livestock Sale. If the youth has other market pigs they may choose one pig to consign to the sale.
- 2 In case of a tie in final scores the following will be used to break the tie:
 - A. Score of Sponsor Relations
 - B. Record Book Score
 - C. Live Placing Score
3. The youth participants must declare the breeding or market option on their application. Barrows or gilts will be purchased and distributed to participants next April.
4. Breeding gilts will not be shown at the county fair. Instead the Catch-it Committee will make project visits during the month of July to assess the condition, health and current management of the gilt. The committee will assign a score that will be used in lieu of the "Live Placing" in the overall contest. (Maximum of 20 points.)
